

RegTech Chicago

New Markets, New Technology, New Regulations

Larry Pitcher is the Managing Partner at Quantorithms Fund, LLC. Mr. Pitcher has enjoyed trading since he was a Series 7 Stock Broker in 1987. In 1989 he founded Chicago Investment Center, Inc. and in 2008 founded Quantitative Algorithms Capital Partners, LLC. He heads the FX department at Quantorithms; which specializes in Ultra HFT Market Making for Equities, Medium Frequency FX trading and Low Frequency Rates trading.

Varghese Thomas is the Global Head of Financial Services at SAVVIS. Mr. Thomas is responsible for defining the Financial Services Vertical global strategy and solutions (Proximity Hosting, Low latency global Exchange connectivity, Web, SAAS, and Cloud) to meet demands of the market. In this role, he was responsible for launching SAVVIS' highly successful Proximity Hosting Solutions, creating a global marketplace with content rich execution and trading eco-system while establishing relationships with value-generating partners. Under the leadership of Varghese Thomas, SAVVIS Financial Services division has had its most significant period of profitable growth exceeding revenue targets each year. Mr. Thomas has authored whitepapers and contributed to articles on low latency trading infrastructure solutions and a frequent panelist on the topic. Mr. Thomas has over 17 years of financial services industry experience. Prior to SAVVIS, he held several leadership roles at BRIDGE Information Systems supporting financial applications and technology at major brokerage firms while providing industry leading customer service. He also worked at Smith Barney's (Citigroup) Market Data Group working with various Trading business units and Market Data Vendors.

Tony Venga is the CEO HFT Technologies LLC which is a leading provider of high frequency trading consulting and technology for the financial community specializing in high-speed infrastructures and trading application development for algorithmic trading and market making. Tony has been the Director of Infrastructure for some of Chicago's largest prop shops and has also held the position of Director of Technology for the North American Derivatives Exchange (NADEX) exchange.

Sebastian Yoon is the Vice President of CFN Services where he is responsible for financial network services, product development/innovation, pricing and strategic business development. CFN Services is formerly CSX Fiber Networks, a subsidiary of Fortune 250 railroad operator CSX where he was a Product Manager of the subsidiary. He has over 11 years of experience in the communications industry in sales, marketing, finance and business development. Previously, he held positions at MCI and Espire Communications as a Business Analysis Manager. Sebastian offers knowledge and expertise on ultra low latency connectivity, proximity hosting, Global Data Execution Ecosystem platform, low latency market data, wireline and wireless telecommunications markets, networks, dark fiber, local access transport and backhaul optimization. He is a member of the Northern Virginia Technology Council and American Marketing Association.

Brian Zboril, Director of Business Development, Infinium Capital Management, is a 23 veteran of the financial industry who has actively participated in the electronic evolution of the markets. He has a BA in Economics from DePaul University and a MS from Illinois Institute of Technology where he was an early graduate of the Financial Markets & Trading program. Mr. Zboril spent over decade in institutional sales and trading where he drove the adoption of electronic execution systems and methods. In 2001 became one of the first electronic traders at what would become Infinium Capital Management. Brian has been the head of multiple trading groups that have been launched to trade newly electronic markets in Fixed Income and Equity Indices. He is currently director of business development for Infinium responsible for managing industry relationships and is instrumental in expanding to new asset classes products and geographies.

Sponsors

Media Sponsors

